MORE DANCE CRUISES AND CRUISES WITH DANCERS

PLANNING FOR THE 90th BLACKPOOL DANCE FESTIVAL (2015):

Blackpool 2015 (the 90th Blackpool Dance Festival) will be held May 21-29, 2015. Tickets can be ordered now, but only for season tickets. Daily admission tickets can be purchased once you are at Blackpool, but without reserved seats. It is easier to discuss the options for tickets over the phone unless you know what you want. Many people don't stay for the whole nine days. If I can understand your needs, I can help you choose the best days to be there.

Sailing to and from England from Blackpool - here are some options:

Sail New York to England (Southampton) May 10-17 on Cunard's Queen Mary 2. This allows time from May 17-21 to see other parts of England including London, Bath, etc. and leisurely make your way to Blackpool. If you don't have the time to do this, you can fly to Manchester, the closest international airport to Blackpool.

Sail home from England (Southampton) to New York May 27-June 3 on Cunard's Queen Mary 2 – note that this requires missing the last three nights of the Blackpool Dance Festival. If you don't want to miss the last nights of Blackpool or can't take the time to sail, you can fly back from Manchester.

These two transatlantic trips are among my favorite. They are very relaxing but fun-filled voyages with LOTS of dancing.

There are six other cruises that I am organizing around Blackpool and Cunard's 175 Anniversary celebration (all three Cunard Queens will be in Liverpool, where it all started for Cunard, on May 25, 2015):

- 1) May 17-27 British Isles and Liverpool Salute for Cunard's 175 Anniversary on the Queen Mary 2. I hope to be on this cruise, as well as one or both of the transatlantic sailings (i.e. You can sail roundtrip New York and never get off the ship (except to visit ports) from May 10-June 3). This sailing is roundtrip Southampton with stops in Cobh and Dublin Bay

(Ireland), Greenock (Great Britain), Oban (Scotland), an overnight in Liverpool, and St Peter Port (England). Taking this cruise only allows visits to the Festival on May 24 (while in Liverpool) or at the end of the cruise May 27-29, or you can leave the ship in Liverpool and visit Blackpool from May 24/25 until May 29.

- 2) May 22-28 Liverpool Salute for Cunard 175 Anniversary on the Queen Victoria 6-day roundtrip Southampton with stops in St Peter Port (Guernsey) and an overnight in Liverpool on May 25/26.
- 3) May 3-10 Britain & Paris 7-day cruise on Cunard's Queen Victoria – this is the “Lusitanian Remembered” cruise which starts and ends in Southampton with stops in St. Peter Port (Guernsey), Le Havre (Paris), Cobh & Dublin (Ireland).
- 4) May 11-27 Baltics with overnight in St. Petersburg on Cunard's Queen Elizabeth with additional stops in Oslo, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Tallinn, Warnemunde, Kirkwall (Scotland) and Liverpool (for 175th Anniversary celebration). This allows time to spend at the Festival from May 27-29 or leave the ship in Liverpool on the 25th for more days and a shorter journey to Blackpool.
- 5) May 28-June 6 (or June 13) Mediterranean cruise on Cunard's Queen Victoria from Southampton to Rome with stops in Gibraltar, Valencia, Barcelona, Monte Carlo, Rapallo, Livorno. Leave the ship in Rome or continue on to Corfu, Kotor, Dubrovnik, and end with an overnight in Venice.
- 6) May 30-June 11 Waterways of the Tsars 13-day cruise on Viking River Cruise's Tuvor from St Petersburg to Moscow with four days in each of these cities and stops in Mandrogy, Kizhi Island, Kuzino, Yaroslavl, and Uglich. After enjoying the Festival, fly to St. Petersburg to pick up this luxury cruise.

After reviewing this and deciding which options you prefer, please give me a call or send an email and I can get you the best quotes available today. All of these sailings will sell out early, so I would not hesitate to book now.
